Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weaknesses and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional indorsement of each of its several ingredients—worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional testimonials. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

RIOTING IN LISBON.

Five persons were shot to death and 50 others wounded by soldiers Sunday evening after the voting in the elections in Lisbon had ended. The rioting was widespread, and such was the confusion during the violent conflict between the populace and the municipal guard that the guardsmen, mistaking infantrymen who had been called out for members of the mob, fired a volley into their ranks, seriously wounding three of the soldiers.

The night was one of terror for Lisbon, which seemed suddenly aflame with seething revolt. Bands of men ran wildly through the streets, brandishing weapons, while the sharp crack of rifles was heard in various sections of the city. Thousands of the most peaceable citizens fled to their homes, just as they did on the night after the assassination of King Carlos, and the crown prince.

The principal rioting was the result of a dispute between the republicans and the monarchists regarding the counting of votes. The republicans, who had been fearing fraud at the various Lisbon polling places, made a determined stand for their rights at St. Dominique's Church, which is in the center of the city, a district that is practically the stronghold of republicanism. Both the republicans and the monarchists kept a sharp watch throughout the day. As the voters were following the ancient custom of voting in the churches, they filed steadily, but slowly, into his oric St. Dominique's and deposited their ballots in the official voting boxes. When the polls closed the monarchist election officers declared that it was too late to count the votes and proposed to keep the list in the church and count them next day. The republican tellers refused to assent to this, insisting upon an immediate count, followed by the sealing of the boxes.

The difference between the officials spread to the crowds that filled the church, and in a moment blows were struck and then a general fight followed. Suddenly the municipal guard arrived and cleared the edifice of the struggling combatants at the point of the bayonet.

In the meantime the crowd outside of the church had been greatly augmented, and the guardsmen's appearance at the doors after they had forced the people into the streets was the signal for a shower of stones, under which they were forced to retreat to the interior of the edifice. As they retired they fired a volley from their rifles, bringing down several of the rioters. The mob steadily increased, and shouts and imprecations and cries of anger were heard on every side. The rioters armed themselves anew, and soon the edifice was literally surrounded and besieged by a maddened mob.

The guardsmen fired intermittently through the doorways, but the volleys were feeble and ineffectual. Eventually the commanding officer placed a detail on the balcony over the main portal, from which point of vantage the guardsmen fired repeatedly into the surging populace, wounding a large number. Still the mob did not give way, but only attacked the church, in an attempt to reach the guard, the more furiously. Several of the guardsmen were wounded, but they were replaced on the balcony by others and for three hours the fight continued, than three companies of infantry and a troop of cavalry, with one battery, appeared, driving all before them.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

RAID ON MOONSHINERS.

A party of United States revenue marshals and raiders returned to Roanoke yesterday from a successful raid in Floyd, Franklin and Patrick counties, where they cut up six large moonshine distilleries, destroyed 7,000 gallons of beer and arrested six alleged moonshiners. They also destroyed six incomplete distilleries.

The revenue men included Lewis B. Perkins, special agent, S. A. Eddy, agent; O. M. Sifford and H. M. Lawson, deputy collectors; W. W. Anderson, special gauger; H. J. Acker, revenue inspector, L. F. Hansbrough and S. F. Chapman, special employes, and Deputy Marshal Staples and a posse.

The party met last Friday at Floyd Courthouse and planned the raid. They went into the whisky-making territory disguised as lumbermen and succeeded in trapping a number of alleged leaders of illicit distilling. The raid is one of the largest made in those counties in a number of years. The raid continued through Friday night, Saturday and Saturday night. The prisoners were taken to jail at Stuart, Patrick county.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, APR. 7, 1908.

SOCIALISM is now being preached in some pulpits. Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, pastor of the Church of the Ascension, in New York, on Sunday morning delivered a socialistic sermon, and charged that workingmen could not look for help from political parties, the press, or philanthropy. "Political parties are organized along lines so broad that the troubles of the poor and of working people are merely incidental to them," said Dr. Grant. "They want labor's votes. Certainly labor may not look to them for increase from suffering." Much of the talk from pulpits concerning the short and simple annals of the poor has long since become insipid to the observant. Most of those who voice such sentiments as quoted above are clothed in purple and fine linen, and fare sumptuously every day. Were the church to return to its primitive simplicity, and leave politics alone, it could in a quiet and unostentatious manner do much toward making the paths of the poor easier, and thereby set an example to the world. In the early days of Christianity much of the surplus revenues of churches was devoted to alleviating distress. It is not so now, but the money used in countless enterprises, some of which may prove to be wood, hay, stubble at the time when fire shall test the works of all. But to return to socialism, it may be said that while so many representative religious people are interesting themselves in political economy they seem to be oblivious to the fact that an insidious enemy to civilization in the shape of socialism is eating like a cancerous growth into the vitals of the church. People who lived eighteen centuries ago were termed fools for not being able to discern the signs of the times. The same might be said of some now.

SENATOR ALDRICH, of Rhode Island, it is said, is making arrangements to retire from public life at the expiration of his present term. The declaration is made that age is responsible. He will be 70 when the time fixed for stepping off the stage arrives, March 3, 1911. As a matter of fact, Senator Aldrich is preparing to give up his position because the Senate is daily becoming more and more an independent body. He realizes that within a few months at best it will be impossible to frame up and drive through any sort of legislation to which he would give even quasi approval. His power as the tactical leader of the Senate waning, he continually stands on the verge of being discredited and defeated. He has grown weary of the continual struggle for supremacy, knowing that in the near future disaster must overtake him. The serious and unexpected opposition to his currency bill completely disgusted Mr. Aldrich with the role of "boss" and forced the conviction upon him that he could not much longer coax or drive the republican majority in the Senate. It was during this contest that Mr. Aldrich decided to give up public life. This disposition to throw off the yoke of "bossism" in the Senate has been developing and growing for the past few years. It never became so pronounced as at this session of Congress. The younger element has proven so unmanageable that Mr. Aldrich decided to serve out his present term and withdraw.

THE NEW YORK conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church made a new departure at its meeting in New York yesterday by passing a resolution recommending to the General Conference that paragraph 248 of the church discipline, which advises against dancing, card-playing, theatregoing, etc., be eliminated. The resolution was adopted by an almost unanimous vote. There was no debate on this question and only a few delegates voted against the resolution. If the General Conference approves the step, it was explained, it will not mean that Methodism alters its historic position in respect to these amusements, but simply makes them a matter of conscience.

DURING the debate in the House yesterday on the bill to establish a naval station at Pearl Harbor, which was passed, Mr. Hobson, of Alabama, made an earnest plea for an elaborate naval programme and discussed at length the possibility of war between the United and Japan. Mr. Hobson is a one idea man and his friends should take him in charge.

THE churches are growing more liberal. The New York Methodist Conference yesterday voted to make amusements a matter of conscience rather than of church discipline.

U. S. District Attorney Baker, of the District of Columbia, has again notified the commissioners that he will not attempt to prosecute persons arrested at Benning, charged with violating the section of the code regulating betting in the District. He says the code does not punish for permitting gambling unless some form is specified as set up. A horse is not a gaming table.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., April 7.

Scoring the House committee on the District of Columbia and paying his respects to Speaker Cannon, Representative T. W. Sims, of Tennessee today made a red hot prohibition address to the Methodist Conference. Mr. Sims satirically said it was "pure coincidence that a majority of the members of that committee were from cities like Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Louis, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco and other "wet" cities. He declared that he would fight to have a prohibition bill reported by the committee and then would work to get the rules committee to bring in a rule that no amendments could be proposed.

It was admitted at the State Department today that the occupation of the town of Jurado, on the Panama-Colombia frontier by Colombian troops, was not only done with the cognizance of the State Department here, but that Colombia had served notice on the Panama government of the proposed action. It is not likely that the State Department will interfere unless unforeseen complication should develop. There seems to be an idea that the town in question may lie in Colombian territory.

Seized with the deadly tetanus, Thomas McCreary, the New York horseman, who was accidentally wounded by Representative Heflin of Alabama at the time the latter shot Thomas Lundy, a negro, on a street car ten days ago, lies in a critical condition at George Washington University Hospital. Early today McCreary was believed to be dying, and an operation was hurriedly performed by his physicians. This is the second operation since Sunday, when lockjaw first set in. McCreary was thought to be better this evening.

Now that the democratic filibuster in the House has resulted in the shutting off of a general debate, the republican leaders have decided that this is an opportune time to push the naval appropriation bill through in order to prevent talk about the submarine scandal. The diplomatic appropriation bill was to have been considered immediately after the passage of the District of Columbia appropriation bill now being considered but the diplomats have been shunted. The leaders care little whether two battleships, or four, are authorized by the bill, so long as there is little said about the reduction by the naval committee of the number recommended by the President and the purchase of submarines instead of battleships. They fear that the airing of this subject on the floor would be used by the democrats for campaign purposes to show the "scandal" in Congress.

A bill for publicity of campaign contributions narrowly escaped being jerked out of the House committee on elections today by the democrats, but the three republicans who stood ended the meeting left the committee room in time to break the quroum, and no vote was possible.

Herman Ridder of New York who is here to urge Congress to take the duty from paper pulp, called at the White House today and told the President that he believed the tariff abolitionists would win out. "We have secured pledges from 68 republicans in the House" said Ridder. If it were not for Payne and Dalzell we would win out right away. They are the chief obstructionists. Mr. Cannon is reasonable and would probably not oppose the idea if Payne and Dalzell could be won over."

Owing to the illness of a child of Representative Olmsted and his inability to be present at today's session, the Lilley investigating committee adjourned over today until tomorrow at 2:30 p. m.

A hearing was today given by the Senate committee on the judiciary to persons interested in the passage of the Ledge-Sterling bill to compensate civilian government employees for personal injuries incurred in line of service.

The National Cement Company, with a head office at No. 1, Wall street, New York, and incorporated under the New Jersey law for $2 000,000 was today barred from use of the mails by the post-office department. The company was organized for the manufacture and sale of portland cement.

The State Department today received the following message from United States Minister Ryan, at Lisbon: "Monarchists overwhelming victorious in elections. Disorders confined to Lisbon. Rest of Portugal quiet."

THE LATE P. H. DESMOND.

Mr. P. H. Desmond, who was 44 years of age, died in Alexandria, last Thursday, at 12 o'clock. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Desmond, of this city, and was born and educated in Lynchburg. Nine years ago he married Miss Mamie Murphy, of Alexandria, and is survived by his wife and two children. He is also survived by his mother and father, and two sisters, Mrs. M. J. Buckley, of this city, and Mrs. R. F. Mauchor, of Roanoke, and six brothers, Jerry R., D. J., A. J., J. C., C. F., and M. A. Desmond. Mr. Desmond worked for the Southern Railway for twenty-three years, and at the time of his death was a train dispatcher. He was sick only a week or ten days. Two of his brothers and his mother were at the bedside when he died. His remains were brought to Lynchburg on train No. 29 Saturday night, and his funeral took place Sunday morning. The deceased was a faithful member of the Holy Cross Catholic church of this city. Mr. Desmond had a large circle of friends in this city and in Alexandria, and was exceedingly popular with the employes of the Southern. He was a man of the kindest feelings, and always had a pleasant word for his fellow men. He was one of the most careful operators on the road, and was held in high esteem by the Southern Railway officials.—[Lynchburg News.

Suit Against Lawson.

Boston, April 7.—"Special services" of widely varied kinds, from dealing with financial magnates to financing stage productions are named in the specifications filed today accompanying the suit for service brought against Thomas W. Lawson by John F. Donahoe. The latter demands $250,000 and recites 33 different instances in which he acted for the millionaire in matters of an extremely delicate and important nature. If the suit comes to trial some startling revelations are expected regarding the scope of Mr. Lawson's strenuous activities. Mr. Donahoe, who is a well known Lynn politician and business man, has been associated with Lawson for 20 years, and probably knows more about his business than any other one man.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, April 7.

SENATE.

Senator Hale today moved that the vote by which the army appropriation bill passed be reconsidered. He said it was his intention to review the enormous increase in the military establishment. This is maintained at the expense of other important measures which are of real benefit to the country.

"We cannot pass the omnious claims bill," said Hale; "we cannot have a rivers and harbors bill; we cannot authorize new public buildings, because all the money is needed for the army. Appropriations in other directions would mean a heavy deficit."

Mr. Hale said the army bill last year carried but $78,000,000; that passed yesterday carried more than $98,000,000, an increase of $20,000,000 in one year.

The increase of expenditures for the navy, said Hale, are even more startling. Last session the bill carried $99,600,000. This year, he said, it is safe to predict the bill will carry $120,000,000. Nobody in trying for an increase of the army, said Hale, except officials of the War Department and the general staff. Members of the general staff will say that the army should be doubled. The officials, he said "during the long, frequent and necessary absences of the Secretary, are in full control of military affairs." Continuing Mr. Hale said if an army of 65,000 men cost $100,000,000, its increase to 125,000 men would mean an expenditure of $200,000,000.

Mr. Hale referred to the Philippines as a "pestilent curse" and said the army is sufficiently large even with that burden. He does not see the army performing any useful service outside the Philippines.

Mr. Hale said the best part of our navy is now engaged in a useless cruise around the world which creates the impression that it is already large enough.

Mr. Aldrich said that there was a difference of $92,000,000 between the Treasury's condition now and a year ago. Last year there was a surplus of $52,000,000; up to this time there is a deficit of $38,000,000. There is certain to be a great deficit for this fiscal year.

Mr. Frye for Mr. Hale moved to table the motion to reconsider the army bill. The motion was lost.

Mr. Frye renewed his action and it prevailed, Mr. Hale's motion for reconsideration being tabled.

Mr. Nelson made a motion to refer the employers' liability bill, passed by the House, to the judiciary committee. Mr. Dolliver objected, having previously asked that it lie on the table. Mr. Dolliver is chairman of the committee on education and labor which reported the LaFollette bill. The Knox bill is before the judiciary committee.

HOUSE.

Pathos and humor were intermingled at the opening of the House today at 11:30 a. m. The desk of Mr. Burk (rep., Ind.) draped in black and wreathed in flowers as a token of the prominent part he occupied in the House, was a mute announcement of his death last night in South Bend, Ind.

When the gavel fell at the opening of the House, up rose the membership. They were ready for the chaplain to offer the usual morning prayer. It had been forgotten that the House yesterday, as a result of the filibuster, took a recess until today and there were to be no prayer today. The few members that had not been caught gave the others the ha-ha. The fun of the day was continued by Speaker Cannon giving republican floor leader Payne aces and spades on parliamentary tactics in filibustering warfare.

When the House voted by 100 to 75 to go into committee of the whole to consider the District of Columbia appropriation bill, Mr. Bartlett made a point of no quorum, just after minority leader Williams demanded a roll call. Mr. Williams' method of procedure would have resulted in two roll calls, while Mr. Bartlett's would have allowed both the question of going into the committee and the question of a quorum being determined at one call. Seeing this, the democrats made Mr. Bartlett withdraw his point.

"The gentleman from New York (Mr. Payne) makes the same point," said the Speaker.

"No," interrupted Mr. Payne, thinking the Speaker had misunderstood.

"Well the chair will make the point," shouted the Speaker, showing his disgust with Mr Payne by bringing his gavel down hard.

The doors were locked and a roll call taken. By 12 o'clock a quorum was present and the House went into committee.

CONFERENCES.

After a most animated debate of more than four hours over the proposition to restore a time limit to the pastorate and the presiding eldership, the members of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, which is meeting at Hamline Church, Washington, adjourned till today witout having taken a vote.

The most important matter finally acted upon at the sessions yesterday was the adoption of a memorial to the general conference asking that body to change the church law so that the appointment of the presiding elders shall be taken out of the hands of the bishops and allow them to be elected by the members of the conference.

The morning session of the conference was given over mainly to the transaction of routine business, such as the passing on the official character of the ministers, hearing the reports of the presiding elders on the state of the church in their districts and the collections.

Rev. William Sheers, who for the past three years has been pastor of the Chester Street Church, Baltimore, and who has been a member of the conference since 1888, severed his connection with the church and will return to his native land—England. Rev. C. G. Girelius, the pator of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Woodside, Md., has left the conference. He will soon take up work as a Presbyterian clergyman.

Lively times are expected today in the Methodist Protestant Conference now in session at Snow Hill, Md., when a special committee will report its findings in the matter of Bethany Church, of Alexandria. This congregation is a part of the M. P. Church in this city, which withdrew nearly a year ago on account of internal differences. When the members withdrew President Sheridan refused to interfere, and it resulted in the membership, obtaining the services of Rev. W. M. Poisal, a retired Methodist Protestant minister, to fill the pulpit. The pastor of the church now is Rev. G I. Humphreys, and he is the only one that has been recognized so far as entitled to recognition. Mr. J. R. Caton, representing the new congregation, is at Snow Hill, and yesterday, through Rev. W. M. Strayer, asked that he be recognized as a messenger, so that the matter could be presented. He is desirous of having this Conference recognize the new congregation which he represents and supply it with a pastor.

The committee appointed to look into the matter and to report today consists of Revs. W. M. Strayer, J. D. Kinzer, J. W. Kirk, J. M. Gill and Messrs. T. P. Fisher and W. T. Ballard. No matter what the recommendation of the committee may be, there is every indication of a warm discussion.

The balloting for delegates to the General Conference, which meets in Pittsburg in May, was completed today, and the entire list is as follow:

Ministerial—Revs. J. M. Sheridan, F. T. Tagg, J. W. Kirk, F. C. Kline, J. D. Kinzer, G. W. Haddaway and T. B. Woodford all of Baltimore; T. H. Lewis, of Western Maryland College; H. L. Elderdice, of Westminister; F. T. Little, of Chestertown; J. M. Gill, of Washington; W. S. Phillips, of Salisbury, and W. R Graham, of Pocomoke City.

Lay—Messrs. T. P. Fisher, of Denton; State Comptroller Hering, of Westminister; Daniel Baker, W. O. Atwood, T. A. Murray and C. W. Simpson, of Baltimore; J. F. Harper, of Centerville; L. W. Hurley, of Seaford; Thomas E. Harrison, of St. Michaels; W. E. Sheppard, of Salisbury; Dr. A. B. Stine, of Washington; H. T. Mason, of Parksely, Va., and W. B. Usilton, of Chestertown.

The deaconess movement was brought before the Conference in the shape of a recommendation by Rev. C. E. Redecker, and after lengthy discussion was referred to a committee which is to report at the next session of Conference, in Baltimore.

The assessment for church extension work was raised from $4,000 to $4,500, after much discussion.

The following trustees of the Conference were elected: Revs. J. L. Mills, J. M. Sheridan, Roland Watts and T A. Murray.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Double Execution.

Philadelphia, April 7.—Sobbing and screaming until the tightening noose cut short his cries in the death agony while a mob of several thousand foreigners gathered outside the prison, shouted curses and attempted to storm the gates, Joseph Talrico was executed in Moyamensing prison today. Max Sofer met death on the same scaffold, but went peacefully to his end. Talrico's struggle against paying the penalty of the murder he committed made the execution one of the most horrible spectacles of the kind ever witnessed in the State. Until the moment the trap was sprung he screamed and struggled with the keepers. As the trap dropped and his body dropped into the closed portion of the scaffold a last piercing scream was uttered, dying into a low gurgle as the noose strangled him. His hanging body twisted and struggled for several seconds before death resulted. Talrico's cries, penetrating beyond the prison walls, could be heard outside the huge building and stirred his countrymen to a frenzy. The police had to fight them back in the sudden rush to storm the prison.

Tarico collapsed utterly when called for the execution. He had to be half carried, half dragged to the gallows. Besides him Sofer walked calmly and bravely. When he caught his first glimpse of the gibbet Talrico began screaming. The clergymen beside him tried in vain to quit him. He was dragged to the platform and held up by keepers while the noose was adjusted. As the black cap was drawn down over his eyes and he realized he was on the brink of eternity the struggles and cries became even worse. He alternately yelled and begged piteously for mercy. His moaning pleas could be heard shrill above the prayers of the clergymen. Only the falling of the drop cut short his screams. Outside the prison there was a riot when an attempt was made to take out the bodies of the executed men. The mob surrounded the undertaker's wagon and fought to take the bodies away. All the police on duty had to be called to charge the mob of foreigners and they were driven back with night sticks and heavy clubs Scores of heads were broken before a path could be made for the wagon. Under police escort it was hurried to the cemetery where the bodies were buried.

Talrico's crime was the killing of the brother of the girl he was engaged to. Sofer was put to death for the murder of his sweetheart, Anna Margols.

Preparations for Wedding.

Rome, April 7.—The family conference touching the Duke of Abruzzi's courtship of Miss Katherine Elkins is in progress at the Quirinal today. Now, does it seem, Italians are asking if King Victor would go so far as to call the royalties together for such a debate unless assurred of Miss Elkins' willingness to accept his kingsman hand? Reasoning thus, all Italy is convinced Abruzzi will soon bring home an American bride. One thing, however, is a good deal of a puzzle. The story goes that Miss Elkins has refused to join the Catholic church. King Victor would not be disposed to insist on this concession, it is said in court circles, but the Italian law insists that all royalties subscribe to the doctrines of the Church of Rome. Just what kind of a compromise is to be reached in this matter is not yet clear.

Rome, April. 7.—The conference of the members of the Italian family relative to Duke Abruzz's engagement to Miss Katherine Elkins ended without a formal announcement of any decision. It is rumored, however, that Abruzzi carried his point, that Miss Elkins will be raised to his own rank, that the engagement will shortly be made public and that the duke is to return to America in the near future. King Victor, the Dukes Abruzzi and Oaskti and the Count of Turin were present.

The Gould Divorce Case.

New York, April 7.—With Dustin Farnum, matinee idol, not only denying the allegations made against him by Howard Gould in answering the suit for separation instituted by his wife, the former Katherine Clemmons, but threatening libel proceedings against the young millionaire, the Gould family is once more in the limelight of publicity. Howard Gould's accusations against his wife and Farnum, as well as his charges of drunkenness, profanity and "improper conduct," give even the most blase of society people a distinct shock Farnum today is fighting mad over the ringing in of his name in Gould's answer. At the Lambs' Club where he was seen, he gave out a vigorous denial of all the accusations. In view of the seriousness of Gould's charges, his attorneys will fight all the harder for a private hearing before a referee. Mrs Gould's lawyers, on the other hand, say the very seriousness of these accusations requires that she be given a chance to disprove them in open court.

Chaos Threatened.

London, April 7.—Political chaos is threatened in England at the very outset of Herbert H. Asquith's elevation to the prime ministry. Trouble had been expected as an early sequence of Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman's retirement, but no one looked for it so soon as now seems certain. Mr. Asquith is in conference with King Edward at Biarritz today. He will return before the end of the week to find the enemy's forces already lined up against him. So critical is the situation that the administration admittedly dare not risk the bye-elections incidental to the changes Mr. Asquith is most anxious to make in the cabinet.

Will Vote Tomorrow.

New York, April 7.—A final vote on the bills which are expected to kill racing in New York State will be taken in the Senate at Albany tomorrow. Both sides profess confidence in the outcome, but it is manifestly impossible to forcast with any degree of certainty and the result will be in doubt until the last vote is counted. Those interested are just beginning to awaken to the enormous amount of money involved and to the loss that will accrue should the bills pass. Figures show these facts in a nutshell. They will exceed $100,000,000.

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly, C. N. Cornell, Reding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Conditions in Portugal.

Paris, April 7.—Cowed into submission by overwhelming military force, Lisbon is outwardly quiet today, according to reports from the Portugese capital.

The censorship is so strict, however, that no very accurate idea of real conditions can yet be gained. Arrests are being made by wholesale, and there is no doubt that only constant vigilance and the utmost severity are maintaining order.

The official report that seven persons were killed and 100 wounded by the troops Sunday night is unaccompanied by any statement of the fatalities yesterday, which is known to have been marked by continued disorders.

The Portugese government's reticence is interpreted unfavorably, and news is constantly expected of a renewal of the trouble. Of the result of the elections no report has been made further than that the government gained a sweeping victory.

Opposition to Marriage Removal.

New York, April 7.—Through the intervention of Mrs. George Gould in behalf of her sister-in-law, it is reported today the family opposition to the proposed marriage of Mme. Anna Gould to Prince de Sagan has practically disappeared. George Gould, alone, is said to be holding out against giving his consent.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Apr. 7.—The market had a generally stronger tone all through the first hour with the improvement due to an absence of selling pressure. The feature was an advance of over four points in Third avenue stock and a better demand at higher price levels for both Third avenue bonds and certificates. The railroad list generally showed fractional gains at the first hour. Government bonds unchanged. Other bonds irregular.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate yesterday disposed of more than $98,000,000 in just about ninety-eight minutes. The army appropriation bill was passed in that period of time, carrying, among other things, provision for material increase in the pay of the army, including an average raise of 40 per cent. for enlisted men.

Senator Burkett tried to secure further consideration of the Dolliver school bill, but Senator Nelson's opposition balked him.

Several District bills were passed, reported or introduced.

The Senate passed the House resolution donating to Oklahoma the first flag containing 46 stars, which was raised over the Capital a few days ago.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Foraker was adopted. It calls on the Secretary of War for the names of all former soldiers of the 25th. Infantry discharged without honor on account of the Brownsville affray, who have applied for reinstatement.

As stated in the Gazette on that day the House passed the employers' liability bill. In brief, the bill establishes the doctrine that the railroad companies engaged in interstate commerce are liable for personal injuries received by employes in the service of such carriers It abolishes the strict common law rule of liability which bars a recovery for the personal injury or death of an employe occasioned by the negligence of a fellow-servant. It also relaxes the common law rule, which makes contributory negligence a defense to claims for such injuries. A provision, however, diminishes the amount of the recovery in the same degree that the negligence of the injured one contributes to the injury. The bill further makes each party responsible for his own negligence, and requires each to bear the burden thereof. The bill as passed by the House was transmitted to the Senate later in the day, and on motion of Senator Dolliver was laid on the table, subject to being called up at any time. Mr. Dolliver contemplates asking the Senate to agree to take up the bill at an early day.

The House also passed a bill that permits the issuance of passes to furloughed, pensioned, and superannuated employes, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of common carriers, and for the bodies of persons killed in the employment of common carriers and former employes traveling for the purpose of entering the service of common carriers, and the families of all such.

The bill to establish a naval station at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, and appropriating $650,000 with which to begin the work was passed.

The House rejected a motion to suspend the rules and pass a resolution changing the site of the Grant Memorial from the Botanic Gardens to the ellipse between the White House and the Washington Monument.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I brought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

POLL-TAX CASE IS SUSPENDED.

The decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the Norfolk city poll-tax case, in which it was held that a voter must personally pay his poll-tax in order to get his name on the polling list, is held in suspense, pending a motion by the attorney-general to rehear the case.

The matter came up from the city of Norfolk on a petition of the good government faction to have all names stricken from the list wherein the voter has not in person paid his poll taxes. The application for a mandamus to compel the treasurer of the city of Norfolk to strike all such names from the list was refused in the court of law and chancery, and an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, that court reversing the decision of the lower court. So far, however, the order of the court, "the mandate of the court," in the case, has not been certified to the lower court, the application to rehear serving to suspend the decision and to hold the matter in abeyance, pending a final disposition. It is not believed that the matter is one of sufficient gravity or importance to warrant the convening of the court in special term, and the chances are that the election will be held in Norfolk city as heretofore, for the decision cannot apply till it has been certified to the court below.—[Richmond News Leader.

Congressman Abraham Lincoln Brick, of the Thirteenth Indiana district, died in Indiana district, died in Indianapolis early today. Representative Brick was 46 years old, and he had been in Congress for the past nine years.

KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM

Or Your Hair Will Fall Out Till You Become Bald.

Modern science has discovered that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the scalp in scales, as it burrows down to the roots of the hair, where it destroys the hair's vitality, causing falling hair, and ultimately, baldness. After Prof. Unna, of Hamburg, Germany, discovered the dandruff germ, all efforts to find a remedy failed until the great laboratory discovery was made which resulted in Newbro's Herpicide. It alone of all other hair preparations kills the dandruff germ. Without dandruff, hair grows luxuriantly. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 138

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

The attendance at R.E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, last night was unusually large, Commander W. A. Smoot presiding. One new active member, George Ira Thomas, of the Washington Artillery, was elected, and the name of Vernon W. Ashby was placed on the list of honorary members. The executive committee made a full report on the expenses of the building. The treasurer rendered his annual report, also the committees on the examination of the adjutant's and treasurer's accounts.

On the observance of Memorial Day, Commander Smoot was selected to secure the orator for the occasion, and Chas. S. Taylor appointed to arrange for the choir. The other committees will be appointed at the May meeting. The commander made his annual report which was full and comprehensive, showing an addition to the membership of ten and a loss of four by death. He also reported that since the organization in 1884 one hundred of its members have died.

The election of officers was as follows; Commander, W. A. Smoot; first lieutenant, Jas. W. Hammond; second lieutenant, Jno. Hooff; third lieutenant, Capt. Robt. F. Knox; adjutant, Chas. S. Taylor; quartermaster, Alexander Lyles; chaplain, K. Kemper; financial secretary and treasurer, Chas. S. Taylor; officer of the day, Jesse Murray; executive committee, Edgar Warfield, F. J. Davidson and G. Wm. Ramsay.

DEATH OF P. H. DEIS.

Mr. Philip H. Deis, a former resident of this city, died in Washington yesterday evening. The deceased seventeen years ago came to Alexandria from Canal Dover, Ohio, where he and others operated a chair factory and planing mill, and asked the City Council to turn over to his company the Pioneer Mills, which were at that time standing at the foot of Duke street, together with the land appertaining thereto. The company also asked that the Council pay the expenses incidental to removing their plant from Canal Dover to this city. The matter was debated for some time in the Common Council, the proposition of the company being opposed by the late George A. Mushbach and others. While the matter was pending the New Alexandria Company was formed and the work of constructing the electric railway to Mount Vernon was commenced. The Deis Company later erected a factory at New Alexandria to which place they removed their machinery from Canal Dover. In December, 1892, the building was destroyed by fire, but it was soon rebuilt. New Alexandria, however, did not flourish, as the promoters had anticipated, and the chair factory was eventually closed. Mr. Deis subsequently removed to Washington. He had lately been engaged in selling pumps which he had patented.

ARREST OF THIEVES.

Last Sunday night the store of Hynson & Co., at Manassas, was entered and robbed. The thieves, it was thought, had proceeded toward this city, and a message was sent to the station house requesting the officers to look out for them. Chief Goods and Lieutenant Smith with the entire force went on the hunt, and soon discovered that two strange negroes were selling hats, &c., in this city. The officers followed so closely on the heels of the negroes that the latter boarded a train and left for Washington. Officer Knight was sent after them and later the darkeys were taken in custody in that city. Officer Knight returned to Washington this morning and conducted the darkeys to this city. They gave their names as John Morris and George Shaw. The prisoner, will be turned over to the Prince William county authorities. Some of the goods were recovered.

PROPERTY SALES.

In the Corporation Court this morning B. J. Lennon and D. W. O'Donoghue qualified as administrators w. w. a. of the estate of Thos. F. Conroy, deceased, of Washington, and later they conveyed to F. C. Spinks three lots with the improvements thereon on the south side of Prince street, between Peyton and West.

Mrs. Virginia R. Simpson, executrix of the estate of George L. Simpson, has sold one half square of ground, bounded by Payne, Princess, Oronoco and West streets, to Mr. Jonathan Matthews. The above sales were made by Mr. John D. Normoyle, real estate agent.

Ellen Bolton has sold to H. J. Bried house and lot No. 1004 Pendleton street.

BANQUET OF ROYAL ARCH MASONS.

Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, will give a complimentary banquet to the lady relatives and friends of the members of the chapter in the Masonic Temple tonight. Each companion will be accompanied by a lady. An interesting musical programme has been prepared for the occasion. Congressmen J. T. Heflin, of Alabama, and W. C. Adamson, of Georgia, will be present and deliver addresses. Rev. E. V. Regester will respond to the toast, "The Ladies."

A SETBACK.

Those whose wont it is to tarry long with the wine are experiencing difficulty in satiating their appetites in some places where liquors are dispensed. Two individuals, patently sober, but with scruples, entered a saloon in the northwestern section of the city last night and called for drinks. The proprietor refused to fill their orders, and the would-be customers were amazed. The boniface told them if they would procure permits from the court he would sell them the liquor, but on no other conditions.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, through which the cold is forced out of the system, and at the same time allays inflammation. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

PERSONAL.

Judge and Mrs. James Keith announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Juliet Chilton, to Mr. William Ogilvy Crockett, in Rockville, Md., on January 3rd, at the residence of the Rev Thomas J Peckard, of the Episcopal Church.—[Richmond Times Dispatch.

Capt. John Hooff spent yesterday evening in this city, having come here to attend a meeting of Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, of which he is an enthusiastic member.

Mr. W. A. Moncure, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Robinson Moncure, of Alexandria, spent Sunday in Stafford, with their father, Mr. Thos. G. Moncure. Miss Josie Brown, daughter of Mr. W. W. Brown, is visiting the Misses Rust, near Alexandria. Miss Bessie F. Washington, who has been visiting relatives in Washington and Alexandria, has returned.—[Fredericksburg Free Lance.

Mr. Julian T. Burke, who has been quite sick with grip for the past few weeks, is able to be out again.

It is currently reported that Mr. Wm. H. P. Kelly will be an independent candidate for Mayor. Mr. Kelly represented the Fourth ward in Council some years ago.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

An interesting and well-attended meeting of Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, was held last night when the following officers were installed by retiring Exalted Ruler Harry Fleischmann; Judge L. C. Barley, exalted ruler; D. E. Robey, esteemed leading knight; Howard W. Smith, esteemed loyal knight; H. B. Quinn, esteemed lecturing knight; W. M. Donnelly, secretary; Charles J. Geisendaffer, treasurer; T. D. Downey, tiler; L. E. Shuman, trustee. A social session was held after the installation ceremonies which was presided over by Dr. W. M. Smith. An interesting and entertaining musical and literary programme was rendered after which refreshments were served. Exalted Ruler Barley on Monday night next will announce a number of appointive officers.

CASE POSTPONED.

The case of a young man living in the southeastern section of the city who had been arrested for having in his possession chickens which had been stolen from the premises of a man residing in that quarter, was called again in the Police Court this morning, but continued until next Monday morning. The owner of the chickens said his hen house was robbed last Friday night, the second time within the past three weeks, and that on the last occasion setting hens had been taken from nests. The suspected man says he purchased the chickens from a countryman, and the policemen are endeavoring to find him.

STRUCK BY A BULLET.

Mrs. Smith, wife of Gen. R. G. Smith, of Washington, was shot in the left arm at 6:30 o'clock last night while on a train of the electric railway at the overhead bridge near Spring Park. The missile was a .32 caliber pattern, and was evidently a spent bullet. The bullet dropped to the floor. Mrs. Smith escaped with a slight bruise. She continued on her journey to Washington. Mrs. Smith had been to Belmont, Fairfax county, four miles below this city, to visit her brother, Col. A. P. Marshall, who was thrown from a buggy last Friday and seriously injured.

RAILROAD MAY BE BUILT.

Dr. A. A. Rittenour and brother, of Alexandria, are interested in having a railroad constructed from Barboursville to this point, thence north through Madison to some point in Rappahannock county. They think a steam road is the only practical road for this section. The estimated cost of the road will be a half million dollars and the people of the three counties will be expected to subscribe at least $150,000 of this amount—Greene County Register, Stanardsville.

SENT HOME.

Chief of Police Goods today received a letter from the mother of Margaret Curran, the young woman who recently reported to the station house here that she had been abducted from Philadelphia, asking why her daughter had not been sent home. The letter was forwarded to the House of Mercy in Washington, where the girl was sent from this city, and this evening one of the Sisters from that institution put her on the train and sent her home.

"OLIVET TO CALVARY."

On Tuesday evening, April 14th, at 8 o'clock, the choir of St. Paul's Church will sing Maunder's beautiful Lenten service "Olivet to Calvary." The choir will be assisted by Mr. Kenneth Ogden, tenor, and Mr. J. Harris Franklin, baritone. A cordial invitation is extended to members of other congregations to attend this service. Ushers will be in attendance to seat visitors.

THE SCHOOLS.

Arrangements for opening the Ewing building on Prince street for school purposes could not be completed this morning, so the opening of the four schools removed from the third floor of Peabody building was deferred till tomorrow when the studies will be resumed. The boys' school will be opened in Armory Hall on Thursday morning.

SENTENCED.

Frank Wilkins, John Penn and John McCuen, recently convicted in the Corporation Court of larceny at the wharf of Messrs. W. A. Smoot & Co., were today brought into court and sentenced by Judge Barley to serve one year in the penitentiary—the verdict of the jury. They will be sent to Richmond in a few days.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Mr. Robert L. Downing, formerly an actor, conducted a revival service in the Methodist Episcopal Church South, last night. There was a large attendance and considerable interest was shown. Services will be held again tonight and tomorrow night and Mr. Downing will speak on both occasions.

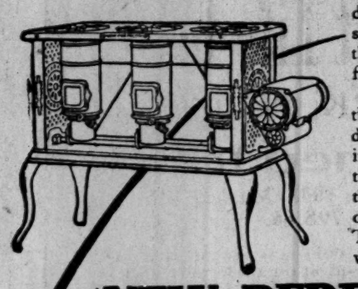
Hot Stove—Cool Kitchen



How do you expect to endure the broiling days of summer if you prepare all the food over a glowing coal fire?

You need a "New Perfection" Oil Stove that will do the cooking without cooking the cook. It concentrates plenty of heat under the pot and diffuses little or none through the room. Therefore, when working with the

NEW PERFECTION

the kitchen actually seems as comfortable as you could wish it to be.

This, in itself, is wonderful, but, more than that, the "New Perfection" Oil Stove does perfectly everything that any stove can do. It is an ideal all-round cook-stove. Made in three sizes, and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp a substantial, strongly made and handsome lamp. Burns for hours with a strong, mellow light. Just what you need for evening reading or to light the dining-room. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

Why He Was Anxious.

Buloz, the editor of the Revue des Deux Mondes, once had at his country house in Savoy a numerous company of literary people, one of whom was Victor Cherbuliez. Cherbuliez contributed regularly every other year a novel to the columns of the Revue, and a story of his was at that time running in the periodical. The guests had been out for a walk and had amused themselves with gathering mushrooms, which were cooked for dinner. As the company were sitting down, it occurred to one of the party that undoubtedly some of the people who had taken part in gathering the mushrooms knew nothing about them and that there might be poisonous fungi in the collection.

This reflection so affected the company that all the people present, with the exception of Cherbuliez, declined to partake of the dish. He alone attacked it with gusto.

Thereupon Buloz showed sudden and intense alarm.

"Cherbuliez! Cherbuliez! What are you about?" he exclaimed. "Remember that you haven't finished your story in the Revue!"

Greatly to his relief, the mushrooms turned out to be innocuous, and the story was finished.

It Was a New "Team" to Him.

Heinrich Conried told the following story once when chatting of his experience as an operatic director: "It happened in Chicago," said he. "I went there to superintend our first season in Chicago. I got there early in the afternoon. As I was registering at the Auditorium a young, a very young, newspaper man came up and talked to me. He begged for an interview. I told him I had arranged to see the press at 5. That did not satisfy him. He was on an afternoon paper. It would be a feather in his cap if he could scoop the town. 'Very well,' said I to him, 'I shall give you an interview, but it will have to be while I am taking my bath.' He seemed an intelligent and earnest young man, and I was willing to do that much for him.

"I turned on the water and divested myself of my coat, and the interview proceeded.

"'What do you open with?' said he.

"'I open with "Tristan und Isolde,"' I answered.

"'Have they ever been here before?' he queried."

Iron Eaters.

"The first time I ever swallowed a tack," said a carpet layer, "I jumped to my feet and tremulously asked the way to the hospital.

"'What's the matter?' my mate, an old hand, asked.

"'I've swallowed a tack,' said I. 'Good gracious, what will become of me?'

"The old hand sat back on the carpet he was laying and laughed.

"'Why, kid,' said he, 'it's nothing to swallow a tack. Every professional carpet layer swallows half a dozen or so daily. It's a thing that causes no inconvenience. If it did, I'd know it. I bet I've swallowed a hundredweight of tacks in my life.'

"And I'm sure," the carpet layer concluded, "my mate was telling the truth, for since then I've swallowed half a hundredweight myself." He gulped. "Hang it," he said; "there goes one now!"—New York Press.

Aroused His Wrath.

"Were you ever done in oil?" ventured the wandering portrait painter.

The old farmer almost leaped out of his boots.

"Was I ever done in oil?" he roared. "Well, I should say so! A long legged, fox eared individual that looked something like you came past here last week and sold me a bottle of what was supposed to be genuine olive oil to eat on lettuce. When I poured it on the lettuce it turned out to be sewing machine oil, and, by heck, if I thought that you"—

But the wandering artist was gone—gone in a cloud of dust.—Chicago News.

Haiti's Legion of Honor.

It is not generally known that the famous order of the Legion of Honor was adopted at Haiti in 1849. When Soulouque became emperor under the name of Faustin I., he instituted an order in imitation of that which had been established by Napoleon in 1802. Statues, ribbons and insignia were precisely identical, and since the sovereign of Haiti distributed his honors to all and sundry with lavish hand the French government was considerably embarrassed. The death of Soulouque ended the difficulty.—Paris Gaulois.

A Poor Remedy.

Speaking of a certain measure under discussion in the senate, a well known congressman said: "It does not meet the situation at all and will not remedy conditions. It reminds me of the wife of a young blacksmith of Washington. 'Did you sew that button on my coat?' this blacksmith asked his wife one morning. 'No, dear,' the wife answered. 'I couldn't find the button, but I sewed up the buttonhole, so it's all right.'"

An Exception.

Little Ethel—Mr. Rich, we're not all made of dust, are we? Mr. Rich (benignly)—Yes, my dear. Little Ethel (triumphantly)—Oh, well, you aren't, 'cos papa says you sprung from nothing.—Punch.

Truthful Boy.

Man—Did you say your mamma whipped you because you wouldn't tell a lie? Boy—Yes, sir. She wanted me to tell me teacher I was sorry I played "hookey" when I wasn't.—Exchange.

Whooping Cough.

I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family in cases of whooping cough, and want to tell you that it is the best medicine I have ever used.—W. F. Gaston, Posco, Ga. This remedy is safe and sure. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.
